STEPHEN BRUCE LONDON

HIRAM — 32 Denver Street — COLLEGE

One thing is sure Stevie, you will hear plenty of jazz and see some exciting football games at college. We know you will be a "tremendous" success at whatever college you attend. In the meantime — jaywalkers beware!!

Class President 3, 4; Clubs: Boys'; Ski 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3, 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom; Senior Reception, Class Ring, Senior Prom; Student Exchange Committee 4.

PHILLIP McKEEVER

SKIP — 18 Atherton Street — COLLEGE

"How do" busy people like Skip even have time for such things as blondes? It's certain that you'll never find him in the conceited peoples' circle in college? We're sure that he will be a great asset to the college of his choice.

RUTH B. SPENCER

RUD — 21 Columbus Avenue — MEDICAL SECRETARY

Versatile "Rud", who dislikes radios that aren't tuned in right, has a weakness for "Lincoln Premiers". Her favorite sport is ice hockey.

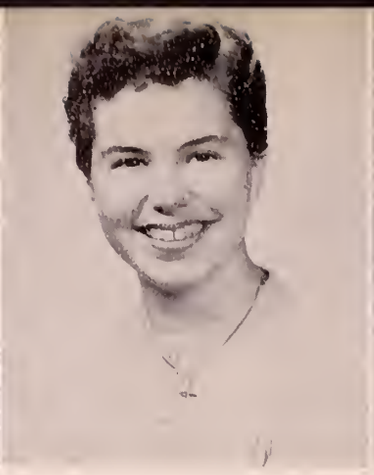
JANE CHURCHARD

JEN — 23 Columbus Avenue — COLLEGE

Sophisticated and popular "Jen" will always be remembered as a very important member of our twirling squad. She plans to attend college. Her aversion is "cigars"!

Class Treasurer 4; Clubs: Girls'; National Honor Society 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross Council 1; Ski 2, 3; Student Council 3; Usherettes 4; Twirler 3, 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom.



JANE ADAMS

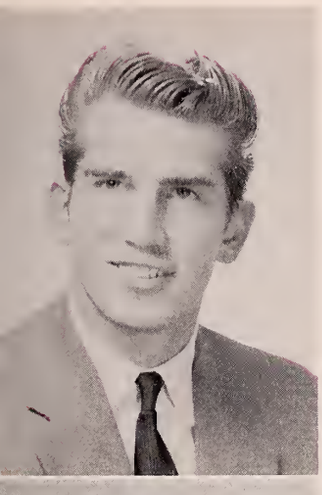
PHILIP BEAUCHESNE

87 Ocean St.

PHIL — TEACHER

"S 'all right" if you don't like Bermuda shorts, Tubs, but it seems they will be in style for quite some time. We're sure that Phil will be a fine teacher.

Clubs: Boys'.



NAN BELL

17 Lark Ave.

NAN — AIRLINE HOSTESS

Friendly Nan, with her pretty red hair, is new to our class this year. Her favorite saying is, "Live in the present, but look to the future," and her favorite sport is swimming. With her likeable ways, we are sure that she will be a successful airline hostess.

Club: Girls'

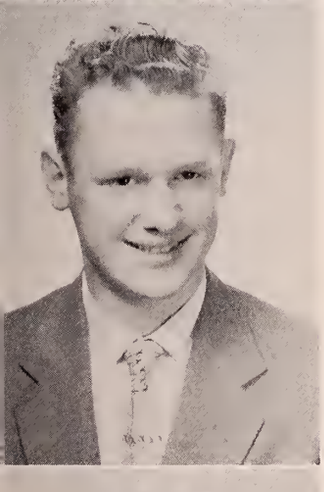
JOHN BENSON

76 Essex St.

BEN — UNDECIDED

Quiet Ben will do well in the future, although his career is as yet undecided. Be sure to avoid meeting any conceited girls, Ben, and always remember your friends at S. H. S.

Club: Boys'.



ATIGLIO BERTORELLI

3 Alice St.

TILL — DRAFTSMAN

Although Till is quiet, he is certainly very friendly. With all his patience, he will surely be a success as a draftsman.

Club: Boys'.

ROBERT L. BERTRAM

49 Elm St.

BERT — COLLEGE

"Bert," who believes that "you're out of your mind to do homework," considers basketball the most exciting sport. Quiet, sincere Bob will be an asset to the college of his choice.

Clubs: Boys, Cabinet Member 4; Junior Red Cross Council 3; Ski 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Junior Ring, Senior Prom.

PAULETTE P. BEVILACQUA

20 Lothrop St.

PAUL — PRIVATE SECRETARY

Friendly Paul, whose favorite saying is "Oh Ma," dislikes boys who aren't sincere. We are sure that she will be a very efficient private secretary, and be as well liked in the office as she has been in S. H. S.

Clubs: Girls'; Dramatic 3, 4; Sahico 4; Focus and Annual Typist 4; Pep Squad 1, 2; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom; National Honor Society 4.

Club: Girls; Committees: Junior Prom.

RONALD BLAISDELL

15 Dustin St.

RON — DRAFTING SCHOOL

"Don't worry," Ron, we're positive that you'll find no "women drivers" in drafting school. We've heard Ron hold some notes on his trumpet longer than he will ever hit a golf ball. Quiet, sincere "Ron" will make a good jazz musician.

Club: Boys'; Committees: Junior Prom, Senior Prom.

JUDITH BLATCHFORD

443 Central St.

JUDY — COLLEGE

"Oh mean", Judy is having another chemistry test! We hope that she doesn't spend all her time swimming and collecting floppy dogs when she is in college. With her sincerity she is sure to be a success.

Club: Girls'; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Prom.

ROBERT BRUNS

18 Warren Ave.

BOB — SERVICE

Friendly Bob, who can always be heard saying, "horrors," dislikes girls who act like the most to say the least. We hope he'll get a chance to see a lot of stock car racing while in the air force or navy.

Clubs: Boys'; Junior Red Cross 1; Library 3; Student Council 1; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Senior Prom.

THOMAS BRYANT

7 Greenwood Ave.

HOT-LIPS — COLLEGE

Tommy picked up the nickname of "hot lips" due to his musical proficiency on the trumpet, "Mien goodness," we hope that Tommy selects a college that has a football team equal to the band. Popular and jovial Tom was well liked by all his fellow students.

Club: Boys'; Committee: Senior Prom.

MAUREEN ANN CARTER

27 Morton Avenue

MOE — HAIRDRESSER

"Ya?" Mo, you really don't like frosted glasses? Happy go lucky Moe usually has an exciting idea in mind. We know that she will be a success in her career as a hairdresser.

Clubs: Girls'; Library 1, 2; Ski 2, 3, 4; Pep Squad 1, 2, 3; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom; Basketball 3, 4.

NANCY CASEY

62 Ballard Street

NAN — ACCOUNTANT

Nan is one of the nicest and friendliest girls in our class, and is well liked by all. Lots of luck in your future at G. E., Nan. Make sure they give you vacations so that you can go camping.

Clubs: Girls', Chairman of Program; Usherettes 4; Sahico 4, Secretary; Committees: Sophomore Dance.

JOANNE OLGA CASO

84 Vine Street

SECRETARY

Ravioli and basketball are her favorites, but "Oh my gosh," she doesn't like bermudas and knee socks. Calm and capable, she will do well in her career.

Clubs: Girls'; Sahico 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Focus and Annual Typist 4.

DONALD CHAPMAN JR.

22 Endicott Street

DON — NAVY

Likeable Don, who is always saying, "not too bright, are you?" likes hunting. We are sure that you won't have to do any homework while in the navy though, Don.

Club: Boys'; Committees: Sophomore Dance.

RICHARD CLARK

317 Essex Street

DICKIE — COAST GUARD

"I give up" Dickie. If girls with short hair are your aversion, you're going to be pretty unhappy, although you may have a fairly good chance of avoiding them on a baseball team, or in the Coast Guard. Lot's of luck, Dick. We'll always remember your friendliness and sincerity.

Club: Boys'.

SARA JOANNE COGLIANO

310 Lincoln Avenue

COGIE — BUSINESS COLLEGE

Oh no!, Cogie, watch out! Here come some more conceited people. Good luck in business school. Be sure to see a lot of football games.

Clubs:Girls'; Camera 4; Pep Squad 1, 2, 3, 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom; Baseball 3.

CAMELLA COLANTON

17 Seagirt Avenue

COLLEGE

Camella, be sure you don't say "Hi Doll" to any grouchy people while you're away at college. You might get an unfavorable reaction some time. Be sure you keep your friendly ways and play a lot of volleyball.

Clubs: Girls'; Library 1, 2, 3, 4, Vice President 3; Student Council 4; Focus Literary Staff; Marshal Squad, Captain 4; Science Club 1; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Junior Ring; Softball 2, Basketball 3.

SANDRA COMSTOCK

569 Lincoln Ave.

SANDY — NURSE

Clubs: Girls'; Library 1; Usherettes 4; Pep Squad 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Prom.

NANCY CRAIK

89 School Street

DANCING TEACHER

Studious Nancy with her sincere ways is sure to be a success when she opens her dancing school. Try not to get any soup in your eyes, Nancy.

Clubs: Girls'; Modern Dance 4.

GERALDINE CRONIN

2 Pinecrest Ave.

GERRY — MEDICAL SECRETARY

"I don't know," Gerry, but we're afraid you'll see a lot of bermuda shorts and knee socks when you go to basketball games. Gerry will be a wonderful medical secretary for some doctor.

Clubs: Girls'; Sahico 4; National Honor Society 4.

MAURICE F. CUNNINGHAM

23 Summer Street

MAURIE — COLLEGE

Maurie has been a vital part of our class during our four "brutal" years in Saugus High. If the profs make him write any French book reports in college, chances are he'll spend the rest of his days playing hockey to the sweet strain of his weakness, jazz.

Clubs: Boys'; Ski 2, 3, 4; Senior Glossies 4; Student Council 1; Delegate to E. M. D. S. C. Convention; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Co-Chairman, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Co-Chairman, Senior Prom; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4.

JAMES CURRIER

WEASEL — COLLEGE

"If you don't know I ain't gonna tell you", but secretly Jim doesn't like knee socks. His intelligence and wit will make him popular, as well as successful, in college.

Clubs: Boys'; Ski 1 2; Committees: Junior Prom.

THORNTON DAKIN

164 Forest Street

THORNEY — COLLEGE

Handsome, popular Thorny plans to attend college after he graduates. Let's hope he doesn't meet any girls that talk too much while he's there. "I'll say!!" His favorite sport is football.

Clubs: Boys'; Ski; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom, Boys' Club Dance 3; Football 3.

SUSAN DAVEY

33 Cleveland Ave.

SUE — OFFICE WORK

Sue, we can't solve your problem. People must wear shoes. You'll find them doing it even in your career in business. Don't work too hard, and be sure to watch lots of football games.

Clubs: Girls'; Ski 4; Sahico 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Senior Prom.

DONALD DAVIS

81 Hobson Street

DAVE — MACHINIST

Quiet Dave plans to be a machinist, and dislikes girls who smoke. We wish you the best of luck in the future.

Clubs: Boys; Ski 2.

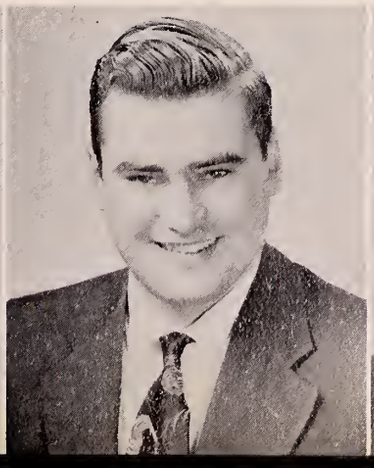
LORNA DAWSON

16 Stocker Street

LONNIE — COLLEGE

Popular Lonnie will make many friends while attending college. We hope that going steady won't interrupt any ski trips she has planned. Her weakness is boys that cry.

Clubs: Girls'; Student Council 3, 4; Dramatic 4; Ski 4, Treasurer; Student Council 4; Usherettes 4; Sahico 4; Focus Literary Staff 3; Annual Collection Manager 4; Pep Squad 3, 4; Committees; Junior Prom, Senior Prom; Basketball 3, 4.



SHIRLEY ANN DEMERS

48 Chestnut St.

SHIRL — STENOGRAPHER

To liven up any party, you can always count on our girl, Shirl. True to her favorite saying, "Wanna hear a joke?", she is always ready for a laugh. You'll make a wonderful stenographer, Shirl.

Clubs: Girls'; Sahico 4; Senior Glossies; Pep Squad 2, 3, 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Prom.

MADELEYNE DESIMONE

83 Adams Ave.

"MADDY" — SECRETARIAL SCHOOL

ROBERT DRAPER

8 Seaview Ave.

"RUSTY" — COLLEGE

"Rusty" is quiet, but he has a terrific sense of humor that will make him welcome in any school he attends. He will probably have lots of homework at college, but "thats all right," or is it?

Clubs: Boys'; Marshall Squad 3.

LAWRENCE DUFFY

86 Denver St.

DUFF — TRUCK DRIVER

Friendly and likeable, Duff plans to be a truck driver after he graduates. We hope you meet many Italian girls and see a lot of baseball games.

Clubs: Boys'; Ski 3, 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom.

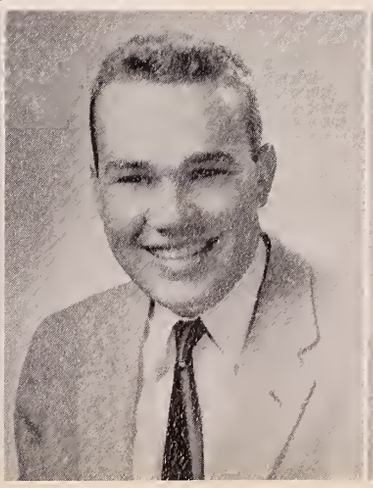
MICHAEL DUFFY

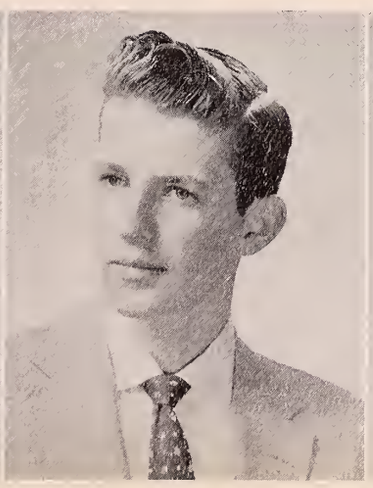
70 Golden Hills Rd.

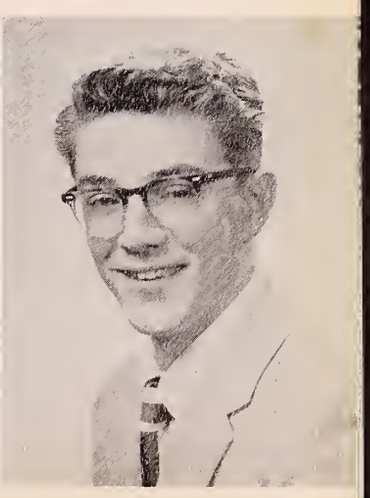
MIKE — ENGINEERING

"Mike," whose philosophy in high school was to "never give up the ship," no matter how hard the homework was, will have little trouble in completing the engineering course in the college of his choice. Popular Mike will be an asset, both socially and academically, to any college.

Clubs: Boys'; National Honor Society 2, 3, 4; Marshal Squad 2; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Senior Reception, Senior Prom.







LORRAINE DYKENS

67 Saville Street

DYKE — BUSINESS

"I don't know" about conceited people, says Dyke. We're sure she won't meet many in the business world. We hope she has plenty of good food, her weakness, in the future.

Clubs: Girls'; Pep Squad 1; Usherettes 4; Sahico 4; Twirlers 3, 4; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Junior Prom, Senior Prom; Annual Typist Staff 4; National Honor Society 4.

ROBERT EISENHAUR

20 Sunnyside Ave.

"IKE" — COLLEGE

"Oh, O. K.," Ike, I'm afraid that you won't be able to escape Monday mornings in college, but you will get a chance to play baseball. Best of luck in the future and always stay as sincere as you are now.

Clubs: Boys'; Committees: Sophomore Dance; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Football Student Manager 3, 4; Hockey 3, 4.

JOANNE EMMA

Clubs: Girls'; Ski 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom; Pep Squad 1.

PHYLLIS ESSERY

21 Western Ave.

"PHYL" — OFFICE WORK

Friendly Phil will be an asset in any office where she works. The only trouble is, she might have to wait for people. Her favorite sport is ice skating.

Clubs: Girls'; Sahico 4; Pep Squad 1; Committee: Senior Prom, Girls Club Dance 1.

ELLIOT EVERITT

51 Harrison Ave.

ENGINEER

Oh, no, Elliot, no more screeching chalk! Well, maybe you can escape chalk and blackboards while on the golf course, but remember to study hard in engineering school.

Clubs: Boys'; Ski 1; Committees: Sophomore Dance, Senior Prom.

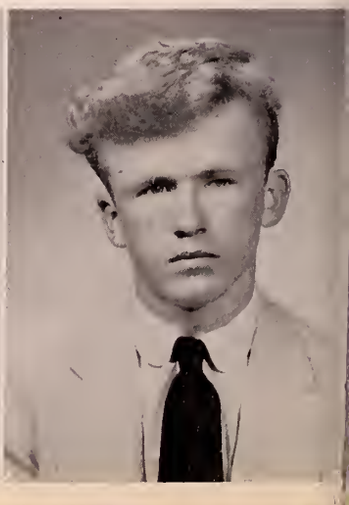
JOHN FAY

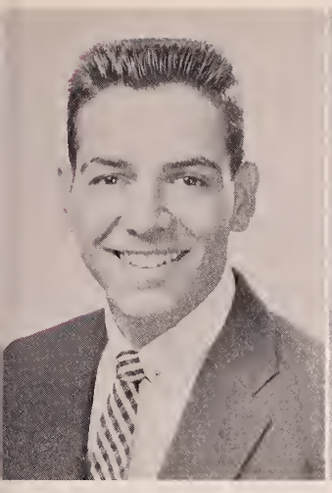
22 Westford St.

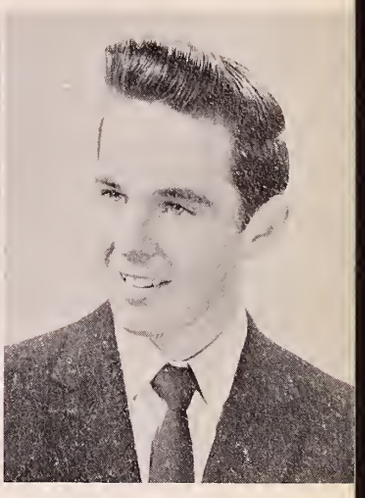
"GUNNER" — PHOTOGRAPHY

"I didn't know what time it was," is Gunner's favorite alibi. He has a weakness for girls, but not the kind that smoke. His friendly ways will help him to succeed in his chosen field, photography.

Clubs: Boys'; Camera 4; Dramatic 3, 4; Ski 4; Marshall Squad 4; Committees: Junior Prom, Senior Reception, Senior Prom, Camera Club Dance 4, Dramatics Club Dance 3, 4; Baseball Manager 3; Basketball 2, 3, 4.







JOHN FERREIRA

95 Sweetwater St.

JACK — PHOTOGRAPHY

Jack's good looks and quiet manners will help him very much when he is a photographer. Let's hope in the future he won't have to get up too early in the morning. His favorite sports are baseball and football.

Club: Boys .

CARL FERRI

99 Water St.

BUSINESS SCHOOL

There is never a dull moment with "Mouse" around. With all his cheerful ways, he'll surely be a success at business school. His aversion is "phoney" red heads, so watch out girls, he always can tell.

CLASS HISTORY

1953-54 As wary Freshmen we went through the year quite gallantly with Don Gorham, Madeleyne De Simone, Carolyn Layden, and Pearl Bates as class officers. Sam's clothing made their debut along with Liberace coiffures and New Yorkers . . . We had a very Successful Football team . . . winning the North Shore Championship . . . Ralph Swenson was our only contribution. Members of other teams were Jack O'Neil, John Gannon, Dave Soper, basketball; Maurie Cunningham, hockey . . . The more couragious girls asked boys of the Girls' Club Dance . . . Glee Club presented Fostina is a Lady . . . The band had their annual concert featuring Si Trocedero . . . and encores. S-Capades made their first and last appearance . . . Remember "This is Your Life" Mr. Watson and Mr. Young . . . We'll never forget "A good citizen keeps informed." . . . Glamour was present on the old stage, the first fashion show, for seniors only . . . With Miss Thompson, our class advisor, we went on our first outing to Nantaskett Beach.

Wary Freshmen

Witty Sophomores

1954-55 Witty Sophomores Here we are, rounding the second turn of the "Great Halls of Ivy." The class officers are Ralph Swenson, Carol Danahy, Pat Domey, and Mike Duffy . . . Girls' gym began this year with exercises on the front lawn in sub-zero weather . . . The first girls' basketball team was formed . . . We held our first dance this year—April Showers—a big success. Tryouts for cheering and twirling left many girls lame . . . Our big project of the year—Clean up campaign—Oooh, those color schemes . . . Wonderful swims in the Spring when the cellar was flooded . . . Our old high school holds many a memory which will linger on when we pass through the doors of the new high school next fall.

1955-56 We invaded the new high school, after an extended vacation, as Wonderful Juniors—maps in hand. Wow!! New lockers, showers, auditorium, and-gym . . . We thrilled to see our Band, twirlers, and Cheerleaders on TV from the Polo Grounds in November . . . The first production on the new stage—The Band Concert . . . Finally our wonderful Junior Prom, "Moonlight and Roses." Ruth Spencer and Donny Gorham, king and queen, distributed class rings and pins . . . The Road Rebels formed and functioned actively for a while . . . "pipes" took the place of horns . . . Junior girls participated in the Style Show this year . . . Mary Patti won a trip to Oklahoma in a G. E. contest . . . Alan Roberts—winning Brotherhood essay . . . Karen Mahoney and Pat Domey—Twirling and cheering captains for next year—Usherettes were elected and a horrible year of no lipstick and unset hair followed . . . finally our first REAL formal . . . the Junior-Senior Reception—and at last—We're Seniors . . .

Wonderful (?) Juniors

1956-57 Now, Weary seniors, we're on the threshold of the future . . . Class Advisor: Mr. Pinciss; Class Officers: Stevie London, Skip McKeever, Ruth Spencer and Jane Churchard. We started off with a Get Acquainted Week—buying tags, looking for matched numbers . . . Another critical football year, but school spirit was renewed . . . In November "Autum Leaves," a big success and lots of fun! Jack O'Neil and Carolyn Layden reigned . . . Several class meetings . . . Preparations for Washington Trip and Ski Trip . . . In February sweaters and letters were awarded to Senior athletes and band members . . . "Room for one More," a terrific Senior Play . . . Elvis and Rock 'n' Roll caused much controversy . . . We enjoyed our last band concert . . . Senior Days . . . class night proved to be a big success . . . then a beautiful Junior-Senior Reception, the class banquet, our long awaited annuals, Baccaulaureate, and finally . . . Graduation . . . the end and the beginning.

CLASS WILL

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1957:

We, the graduating class of the year nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, after four long years of stacks of books, hurried lunches, and daily trips to the main office, presumably of sound mind and body, do take account of stock and do hereby make, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking, apostatizing all former wills, testaments, and codicils which have accumulated during our high school career.

To the Juniors we will the privilege of sitting in the front section or the auditorium.

To the Sophomores we will the patience to wait one more year before being "top men" in the school.

To the Freshmen we leave all the well used (and unused) books which have been in our possession during the last four years.

To our Class Advisors we bestow our sincere appreciation for their guidance, patience and understanding.

To Mr. Pearce we give relief from the Class of 1957 and its 206 problem children.

To Mr. Young we leave the combinations to our lockers and our illegally used bus tickets.

To Miss Hayward we donate a new pair of track shoes with the hope that they will aid her in her daily sprints through the corridors.

In the corridors and classrooms of Saugus High School we leave memories of our four wonderful years.

Finally, that we may, as individuals, not be forgotten, we each have a donation to make:

Sara Cogliano donates a year's supply of Tums to the cafeteria.

Nina Moody leaves the sad memories of her stay in California.

Katherine Merenda leaves her position of Glee Club soloist to Dianne Fullerton.

Paul Maguire takes his mother to college with him to insure a steady supply of toll house cookies. Mary Leahy and Sandy Moss tag along to steal them out of his lunch bag.

Margaret Petrie and Eddie Vickers leave together.

Rita Maillet and Carol Zulkowski leave their poodle cuts to a Mexican Hairless.

Pat Kelley leaves her uncle still trying to find the "universal solvent."

Gerry Swanson wills her naturally blonde hair to Nancy Sawyer.

David Rice "leaves" this mortal earth on his thirtieth birthday.

Johnny Gannon and Herbie Gaudet leave chasing a wagon. There goes Art Reese chasing after Johnny and Herbie.

Pat Domey wills her megaphone to next year's captain.

Judy Simmons leaves her skiing ability to anyone who wants it.

Lester Simmons donates his comic books to the library.

Jane Adams takes Teddy MacMillan with her and leaves the band without a drum-major.

Susan Davey, Maddie Desimone, and Leroy King wander away counting each other's freckles.

John Hill will be found under a mound of paper in Mr. Watson's room.

Carmella Colanton donates Jimmy Hughes' giddy shoelaces to hold up Leger Little's fuorescent socks as traffic lights for next year's Marshall squad.

By now Judy Doherty is ready to leave Skip's Ford in a junk-yard.

Janet Quirk wishes that she could take her rack full of gowns with her.

Donald Chapman, Donald Murray and Robert Parent skip out to go hunting.

Billy Pasquina skips out to go clam-digging.

Billy Flanagan leaves his book "Happy Death Days" to some cheerful underclassman.

Mary Patti and Pearl Bates leave their work on the Annual till the last minute.

Bruce Platt heads for his mountain retreat with his Davy Crockett musket and an armful of books.

Joan Sacca wills her equestrian masterpieces to Suffolk Downs.

Charlene Stowe leaves to become S. H. S.'s only gum-chewing interior decorator.

Ruth Spencer and Bob Terpstra are leaving to take a correspondence course in spelling.

Donnie Ballard takes his long list of telephone numbers with him.

Dickie Barrows leaves impressions of "Crazy-Legs" Hersch.

Ronnie Blaisdell leaves his collection of progressive jazz records to Mr. Mitchell.

Lonnie Dawson donates Miss Marison's all girl classes to Mr. Moschella's all boy classes.

Johnny Secor leaves his work on the Class Will to everyone else.

Judy Starrett is left with no place to skate since Lily Pond has disappeared.

Eleanor Metcalf and Pat Schneider leave their kneesocks to a junior boy with hairy legs and knobby knees.

Carol Danahy left and came back with a new nose.

Arthur Stead takes his electronic knowledge with him.

Bob Bertram donates his red hair to anyone who wants to get into next year's N. H. S. Dance for 65c.

Beverly Sproul takes her beauty with her.

Stevie London donates his pigs to next year's Who's Who Committee.

Judy Blatchford and Nancy Jameson leave their positions in all boy classes to two worthy commercial girls.

Will Jane Churchard leave for Colby???

Jimmy Currier leaves his gum to Mr. Struzziero.

Robert DiNocco departs for the "old country."

Pierre Fleuriel bequeaths his quitar to Ralph Morley to perfect his impersonation of Elvis Presley.

Jimmy Hohmann leaves his "puny" thoughts with Mr. Burns.

Bruce MacQuarrie leaves the stage in C-109 to Muriel Smith.

Robert McEarchern leaves his art of "taxidermying" to Ralph Tibbetts.

Susan Merrill chugs away in her "Model T Ford" leaving Marilyn Thibault shuffling along behind just as fast as her stubby little legs will carry her.

Jack O'Neal takes his talents with him to follow in the footsteps of the Rouleau brothers.

Kenny Penney leaves his motorcycle home on rainy days.

Dottie Forward leaves in reverse. (OH, pun-ee thought.)

Dianne Sampson left the basketball team with a crooked little finger.

Dana Smith turns over her position in the Girl Scouts to Cynthia Ratigan.

Ralph Swenson leaves to join his twin brother in "Swedeland."

Dave Walsh leaves his car to be stolen by anyone who is crazy (?) enough to want it.

Bruce Wolfe leaves his lemon frappes to someone with a strong stomach.

Beverly Billington donates her BIG picture to Armand Studio.

Dickie Clark is swept away in a crowd of friends.

"Ike" Eisenhaur leaves with aspirations of becoming a big league pitcher.

Fred Forni returns his nickname to the Dave Garroway Show (J. Fred Muggs).

Donny Gorham wills his cue stick to Dave Healey.

Judy Oljey leaves to take her place as "Future Homemaker of Tomorrow."

Robert (Clyde) Draper walks away wishing he were driving.

Karen Mahoney leaves everyone awed by her marvelous twirling routines.

Rosemary Keefe departs for a "Tay Par-tay."

Dorothy Kyle heads for Africa to teach driving to the Bushmen.

Carlene Lee and Carol Perry leave for the drag races.

Lorraine Murray hurries away leaving poor Joanne Caso shouting, " 'Lolly' linger longer, I'm too slow."

The two Petes, Roy and Orlando, turn the controls over to Mr. Bly.

Lois Prusak wills her quiet sincerity to some needy underclassman.

Carol Smith leaves the Glee Club with no place to hold officers' meetings.

Kenney . . . (Riley) leaves everyone looking for his last name.

Richard "Bonga" Stead is on his way to the jungles of Africa in search of "what?"??

Ronald Walsh bequeaths his jokes to a corn patch.

Norman Devonshire leaves his brother without a big brother in high school.

Mike Duffy leaves Richard Stevens to carry on his arguments with "Charlie."

Joanne Emma leaves Dougie to roam the corridors alone.

Billy Gage embarks in his boat on an excursion up the Saugus River.

Jeannette Girard donates her good penmanship to Mr. McCullough.

Linda Grey leaves Mr. Young's office to Gloria Pothia.

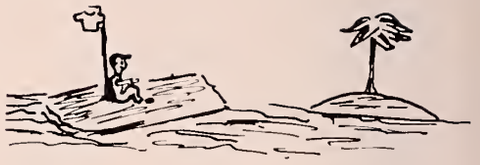
Shirley Hover donates her crutches and bandages to the football team.

John Hurley leaves!

Frances Leggett and Marion Lambert gallop away in a cloud of dust.

Larry Ramsdell left the remains of his '37 Plymouth in the middle of the pike.

Walter Sellenburg leaves Ronnie Blaisdell home now when he delivers sausages to the Haufbrau.



Gary Singer passes on his turtle neck sweaters to Roy Buchierre.

Lewis Young wills her beautiful gowns to Plotkins.

Heather Anderson leaves her suspenders to Mr. Young.

John Benson leaves his sleep to Nancy Sargeant and Jill Bentley. They'll need it . . .

Atiglio Bertorelli leaves for the registry to re-get his license.

Herbie Wing helps Dave Swallow fly away.

Bruce White donates his LONG legs to stubby-legged underclassmen.

Susan Babcock leaves still trying to figure out why she can't get 103 per cent.

Jimmie O'Shea bequeaths his "Ham" set to a younger enthusiast.

Nancy Craik will join Sylvia Chandler in her dancing school.

Leslie Hubbard leaves his name to the National Nursery Rhyme Association.

Glenn Evans departs for parts unknown.

Pat Kelly was happy to leave North Saugus and move closer to Billy.

Jean Leonowert leaves in search of a multi-millionaire.

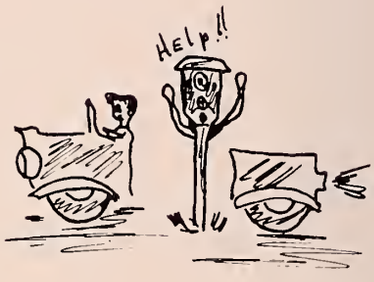
Betty Ludwig passes on the formula for telling twins apart to Judy Kennedy.

Skippy McKeever wills his draft worries to any 18 year old freshman boys.

Some day Carl Paltrinari will leave the rear end of his hot Chevy at a stop light.

Pat Panico leaves high school to join nursing school.

Richard Rainford leaves his posters to spur on next year's football team.



Helen Sheehan and Geraldine Cronin leave their quiet ways to the noisy halls of S. H. S.

Lee Wilson leaves Norman Peach without a ride to school next year.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- ☐ Good starting salary with regular raises
- ☐ Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- ☐ Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
